TEMPEST OF DEATH.

Awful Work of the Tropical Tornado in Texas.

LOSS OF LIFE IS ENORMOUS.

Indescribable Scenes of Devastation And Distress.

STATE AND NATION ASKED FOR AID.

Greatest Havoc Wrought at Galveston—Hundreds of Dead Bodies Picked Up—Many Swept to Sea Who Will Never Be Accounted For—Property Loss in the Millions.

Houston, Sept. 10.—A scene of desolation and death, not only at Galveston, but at many inland points in Texas is the result of Saturday's storm.

Estimates of the number of dead are now placed between 1,500 and 2,600. The property loss will aggregate many millions of dollars, although no accurate figures can be given at present. The streets of Galveston are mostly under water; wires are in a hopeless tangle and dead bodies are thickly strewn among the floating debris. No complete list of dead is obtainable until the water recedes.

Harrowing tales of the loss of whole families, and many miraculous escapes, are told by the few survivors who have thus far reached this city. The relief trains which arrived here have been the only means of communication with storm-swept Galveston, and definite information as to the present situation is scarce.

The cotton and rice crop throughout the district devastated by the storm is badly damaged in many places, and in others is totally destroyed.

Reports from Richmond, Texas, Letitia and Eagle Lake, bring additional lists of dead and property losses, and many places cut off from all communication are to be heard from.

The Horror Grows.

Dallas, Sept. 10.—Houston and Texas Central railroad officials at noon received bulletins from their general office in Houston that the loss of life will reach 3,000 in Galveston. The Missouri, Kansas and Texas relief forces near Galveston and along the coast telegraphed at noon that the loss of life will not be less than 5,000 and may reach 10,000.

STREWN WITH DEAD.

Hundreds Picked Up on the Coast Many Swept Out to Sea.

Dallas, Sept. 10.—From Virginia Point, north and south along the bay front at such places as Texas City, Dickinson, Hitchcock, Seabrook, Alvin and a dozen small intermediate points the number of dead bodies gathered up by rescue trains and sailing craft had reached at noon more than 700. This is only a small scope of the country devastated and it is feared that the death list from the storm will show not less than 5,000 victims. Hundreds have been swept out to sea who never will be accounted for.

Two mass meetings were held here, one by citizens alone and the other by Odd Fellows. Many thousands of dollars were subscribed for the relief of the Texas gulf coast storm sufferers.

Railroad and cotton men estimate loss of all kinds of property including the cotton crop at from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

DESOLATION AND DISTRESS.

Relief Sooner Needed—First Estimate Of Deaths Too Conservative.

Houston, Sept. 10.—The following dispatch was received from Galveston by boat to the mainland:

The loss of life may be stated at 1,000 of drowned, killed and missing. The property loss will run into the millions. Scenes of desolation and distress are on every hand. No one can miss them. Fully 75 per cent of the buildings of the city are more or less damaged. Whole families and communities are being taken from the debris and each minute brings the discovery of some new victim. On the gulf side of Tremont street, the water has made a clean sweep of everything for a distance of three blocks. All the bath houses and residences along the beach are gone and the debris has blocked the approaches of the street to the gulf.

About 1,000 people took refuge in the Tremont hotel and all these escaped injury.

The Dulitz building, a three-story brick structure, was the first to collapse. Ritter's saloon and restaurant on the Strand collapsed from the top, imprisoning a number of persons, among whom were Richard Lord and F. G. Spencer, who were killed. The building gave way with such rapidity that it will be impossible to give an approximate estimate, even as to the number of those who were inside.

The Rosenberg school, the city hall and the Hall high school suffered severely and all the residences within three blocks of the beach were destroyed on every side. The city is practically without fire protection. The equipment could not get about the city even if there were wires to give alarms.

A meeting was held at the Tremont hotel to consider means of relief for the distressed and homeless people. Medical attention is badly needed as are also disinfectants.

Appeals were sent to President McKinley and Governor Sayres with the request that this appeal be published at once and that it be extended for the relief of the city. Relief must come, human lives are at stake as actual starvation and death from lack of medical attention forces many hundreds of people.

The list of dead is growing momentarily and the first estimate of 1,000 deaths is too conservative.

President Asked For Aid.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The president received a telegram from Mr. Sillman of Houston, in behalf of the mayor and citizens committee of Galveston, which in a few words gives to the president the general situation in Galveston and says that money, food and clothing are needed immediately, also that they must be furnished by the state and nation. He calls upon the president for aid. The president replied that he had instructed the secretary of war to immediately furnish tents and provisions for the destitute people in Galveston and expressing his sympathy for the sufferers. President McKinley also sent a telegram of sympathy to Governor Sayres and notifying him that the secretary of war will supply tents and provisions to the flood sufferers upon his request.

Famishing For Water.

Dallas, Sept. 10.—A movement has been inaugurated at Dallas urging Governor Sayers to call a special session of the state legislature. The worst is believed to still confront Galveston. There is said to be no drinking water in the city and the people are suffering. Efforts are being made to get water from the mainland to the city, but nearly all water craft have been wrecked and the efforts are handicapped. Water for drinking purposes will have to be carried about 20 miles to reach Galveston.

No Red Tape In Time of Need.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Mayor Harrison will issue a proclamation calling upon the people of Chicago to contribute to the aid of the Texas sufferers just as soon as he learns that they are in need of help. "If I find that a condition of widespread sufferings exists," said the mayor, "I will not await the usual official notification, but will go to work in advance of word from Texas and I know the people of Chicago will give generously."

Fort In Flooded District.

Washington, Sept. 10.—By direction of the president, Adjutant General Corbin telegraphed General McKibbin, the commanding officer of the department of Texas, asking him to report immediately upon the situation as affected by Saturday's storm, especially as to government property. The war department has one post, Fort San Jacinto, on Galveston island manned by company O of the First artillery.

Effect on Cotton Exchange.

Liverpool, Sept. 10.—There was considerable excitement on the cotton exchange. Business was quite disorganized and prices were unsettled by the peculiar conditions arising from the scarcity of cotton, which was actuated by the news of the terrible destruction wrought by the tornado at Galveston and in the vicinity of that city.

Call For Help.

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 10.—Governor Sayres has issued a proclamation to the mayors of all Texas cities stating he will receive and forward all contributions, clothing, etc., that may be sent for relief of storm-swept Galveston and other southeastern Texas cities.

Red Cross Ready.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Miss Clara Barton, president of the Red Cross society has telegraphed Governor Sayers of Texas as follows: "Do you need the Red Cross in Texas? We are ready."

EVENTS IN POLITICS.

Bryan Talks to a Club in Chicago Composed of Nebraskans.

ROOSEVELT IN THE BADGER STATE.

Chairman Hanna at Chicago Headquarters—New York Democratic State—Forthcoming Meeting Of Democratic Clubs.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—William Jennings Bryan was the guest of the Nebraska Bryan club of Chicago at a reception held at the Sherman house. Mr. Bryan met several hundred people after which he was introduced by M. V. Cannon, president of the club. Mr. Bryan spoke in a reminiscent vein for some time, facetiously alluding to his beginning as a politician in Nebraska. In concluding his address he said: "My friends, we have to meet issues and the club organization is of advantage. The club organization is good because, first, it brings together those who are supporting our principles, and second by coming together they gather enthusiasm and inspiration that takes them out and makes them do good work. Now, the work done in a campaign is not done by the candidate or by the committee. The candidate does what he can, the committee does what it can, but the work of the campaign is done by the individual voter who goes out and talks and circulates literature and applies the lessons of experience. I want to thank the members of this club for the enthusiasm which they have thrown into the campaign and I want to commission them to go out and convert just as many as possible."

Roosevelt in Wisconsin.

Lacrosse Wis., Sept. 10.—Elaborate preparations were made for the visit of Governor Roosevelt. The first meeting was held at 2 p. m. for the benefit of visitors from different points in the vicinity. The evening meeting was for the inhabitants of the city. The city was handsomely decorated with flags and bunting and large pictures of McKinley and Roosevelt. The train bearing the vice presidential party arrived promptly at 11 o'clock. Governor Roosevelt was escorted to the waiting carriages by the reception committee. The parade followed, after which the governor was driven to the hotel for luncheon and rest before the ceremonies at 2 o'clock. United States Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota was present and Congressman Esch presided. Robert M. La Follette, candidate for governor, General Bryant, chairman of the Wisconsin state central committee and Senator J. V. Quarles accompany Governor Roosevelt on his trip through the state. A special train from Madison brought a large crowd of visitors to the day meeting. Governor Roosevelt will make no other speeches in this state.

Hanna in Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Senator Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee, arrived here Monday. He will stay in Chicago two days, then return to the east for a fortnight and still later will return to this city. Chairman Hanna was met here by Mr. Dover, his secretary, Vice Chairman Payne, Secretary Heath and National Committeemen New, Mulvane and Stewart. He spent the day in conference with the campaign leaders at their headquarters in the auditorium annex. "There is nothing to say concerning the campaign except that things are looking rosier every day," was the senator's confident assertion to his callers. Among others who visited Senator Hanna was Congressman Landis of Indiana, who urged the senator to make several speeches in Indiana. "I am going to be too busy to make many speeches, there is much other work of a more difficult nature awaiting me."

Democratic Clubs.

Indianapolis, Sept. 10.—Louis Stevenson, son of the Democratic nominee for vice president, held a conference here with prominent Democratic leaders in which plans for the meeting of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, which will be held in this city Oct. 3 and 4, were discussed. Stevenson has charge of the club organization for the western section of the country, and he reports that clubs are being formed in all parts of his territory. He says from present indications as many as 60,000 Democrats will attend the national meeting.

McKinley Accepts.

Washington, Sept. 10.—In his formal letter accepting a renomination, President McKinley discusses tariff and finance, claims a general degree of prosperity for the country, says a short day is better for the laborer than a short dollar, goes into detail on the Philippine question and says "If our opponents would only practice as well as preach the doctrines of Abraham Lincoln there would be no fear for the safety of our institutions at home or their rightful influence in any territory over which our flag floats."

AMERICAN LEGATION.

May Be Transferred From Peking To Shanghai.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Unless Minister Conger, in reply to questions sent by cable to him nearly a week ago by direction of the president, gives better reasons than are now conceived here for his continuance at Peking, he will be instructed to remove the American legation without delay to Shanghai. General Chaffee's troops will escort the minister and legation to Taku, and Admiral Remy will take them on the Brooklyn to the Chinese metropolis, making that port the meeting place for his fleet.

The main American military force will probably not remain on Chinese territory after October 1, and its withdrawal from Peking may be a matter of less than ten days. General Chaffee has already informed the war department of his readiness to leave Peking at a day's notice, while he is fully prepared if necessary to remain all winter.

Although not yet officially admitted sufficient marine transportation for the entire force is now under orders to assemble at Taku by Sept. 20, and at least two steamers will be at the mouth of the Pei-Ho to receive the first troops Saturday.

No conceivable advantage occurs to the president's advisers of maintaining the legations in a city where there are no imperial officials, with whom negotiations can be conducted, and where it is hardly likely there will be any improvement in this respect for many months, while at Shanghai there is constant intercourse with the rulers of four-fifths of the empire and security of person and property.

Claims Against Honduras.

Washington, Sept. 10.—There is excellent prospect of an early settlement by Honduras of a claim for indemnity presented by this government in behalf of the heirs of Frank Pears, an American, who was murdered in February, 1899, by a Honduran soldier. A commission appointed by the Honduras government to investigate the murder places the responsibility on the government and recommends a compromise. The department has referred the matter to the Pears brothers, in Pittsburgh, and it is thought they will be willing to accept $5,000, especially as they have large interests in Honduras.

Goal of Civilization.

The Hague, Sept. 10.—Replying to the telegraphic message forwarded to the czar Sept. 4 on the occasion of placing in the foreign office archives the ratification of the agreements and treaties resulting from the peace conference, his majesty after expressing his sincere thanks, concludes: "God grant that the labors in which these men have taken such active part may serve as the basis for the establishment, even though in the distant future, of universal peace which is the goal of Christian civilization."

Santa Fe Bridges Out.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—E. P. Ripley, president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad stated that the railroad was intact so far as Virginia Point, across the bay and three miles from Galveston. Between that point and Galveston there are three railway bridges and the company is proceeding on the theory that they have been destroyed, although this cannot be ascertained until the water recedes, and is rushing material to repair them.

Bryan Dined With Wheeler.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—William J. Bryan, the Democratic candidate for president, took dinner Sunday with General Joseph Wheeler, commander of the Department of the Lakes. Mr. Bryan spent the remainder of the day in his rooms, where several Democratic leaders called for a social chat. Mr. Bryan will rest here a few days and then commence a tour of the country.

Two Cotton Firms Failed.

New York, Sept. 10.—Two failures were announced on cotton exchange. One was that of Guy R. Schiffer, the other that of his father, L. G. Schiffer, one of the oldest men in the cotton trade in this city. The failure of L. G. Schiffer is supposed to have been due to his efforts to help his son, who has been a heavy trader for some time. The failures, however, produced no effect on the market.

Leonard A. Magruder, attorney, formerly of Marietta, died of peritonitis at Columbus, O.

LI HAS FULL POWER.

May Conclude Terms of Peace at His Own Discretion.

NEED NOT CONSULT THE EMPEROR.

Extraordinary Authority Given the Viceroy as a Peace Plenipotentiary—All Doubts as to His Credentials Removed.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The Chinese minister has received an imperial edict conferring upon Li Hung Chang extraordinary power for the complete settlement of the Chinese trouble. It gives him authority to make any terms according to his own discretion without referring them to the emperor. This is unusual authority and it is claimed at the Chinese legation, gives Li Hung Chang credentials adequate to meet all objections heretofore raised as to his power to negotiate for peace. The edict is dated two weeks ago, but is just forwarded from Li Hung Chang. Minister Wu has delivered it to the state department.

The edict is dated the last day of the seventh moon, Chinese calendar, which is about Aug. 24. It is issued by the emperor and not by the empress dowager, indicating that the former is now exercising the imperial functions which some of the powers, notably Great Britain, have insisted belonged to him, rather than to the empress dowager. The document does not show the place at which it was issued, but it was transmitted through Pao-tung Fu and probably emanated there, as the imperial household has been at that point for some time.

An extended conference was held between Mr. Hill and Minister Wu on the extensive authority with which Li Hung Chang is now invested.

The edict is prior to the request sent by Li Hung Chang to the throne that the viceroys of Nanking and Wu Chang, and Prince Ching be included with him as negotiators. This request has not yet been responded to by the throne, so far as the Chinese minister here is advised, but if Earl Li's request is granted, there is no doubt it will carry the same absolute authority with which Li Hung Chang has been invested.

Minister Wu says the authority is so complete as to remove any possible question as to the sufficiency of credentials. General Chaffee's dispatch received is in line with that officer's former declaration respecting the advisability of withdrawing the American troops from Peking and undoubtedly will cause the government to effect some sort of settlement that will permit of an early withdrawal from China. The conditions reported by General Chaffee appear to warrant the conclusion that Mr. Conger will speedily leave Peking for one of the ports on the coast where he can act more effectively and that the United States troops will not respond to the German invitation to make a further offensive campaign outside of Peking. It is believed the objects that remain to be accomplished can be secured without further military operations so far as the United States troops are concerned. The idea of a removal of the diplomatic center to Shanghai meets with objection from those familiar with the conditions. It is said that Shanghai is practically cut off from Peking as soon as winter sets in, a full month being required to exchange communication so that it would be inadvisable to thus suspend the chance of ready communication with the capital.

Baron Sternberg, the German charge had a talk with Secretary Hill, but it led to no material change in the situation. It is understood that Count Von Waldersee will arrive at Hongkong, go thence to Shanghai and then to Tien Tsin, which will be his military basis. He is due at Hongkong at the end of the week and at Shanghai three days later.

Can't Do Anything at Peking.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The following dispatch has been received at the war department from General Chaffee at Taku: "Evidence accumulates that diplomatic relations will not be resumed here for a long time. Russian legation will leave very soon for Tien Tsin. Appears to me certain Chinese government will not return here while army remains and if this is true our legation can transact no business. My opinion Peking ought to be merely camp of foreign army pending settlement by powers at other points."

BECKHAM.

The Democratic Nominee Delivers Some Telling Blows.

Caustic Review of the Shameful Record of Kentucky Republican Rulers.

[Extract from Gov. Beckham's Opening Speech.]

"The life of William Goebel had been sacrificed in his gallant fight for the people's rights. In the Capitol grounds, where for twelve long years he had battled against corporate greed and stood like a lion in the pathway of the aggressions of wealth, he fell a victim of a foul conspiracy, and as his body lay bleeding there upon the pavement, the Democracy of Kentucky bowed its head in sorrow over the loss of its greatest leader and the poor man knew that he had lost his best and truest friend. This cruel assassination was not enough. They found even deeper infamy into which they could go. They seemed unwilling that their victim should die without further disturbance from them. What did they do next? My friends, it is hard to believe that even that desperate set would have gone to such an extent. I would have doubted it myself if I had not seen it with my own eyes. While William Goebel lay dying in his room that day, suffering intense agony from his awful wound, they placed their troops of raw militia immediately under his window, where, with their noise upon the brick pavements, they could most effectively disturb and annoy the dying man. No more heinous crime was ever committed, and yet the Republican candidate stands upon a platform adopted by his party in State convention which indorses all the acts of the men who were responsible for this atrocious deed. Will the people of Kentucky indorse them, too?"

"Five years ago, in the campaign for State officers, some Democratic speakers told you that it would be unwise to elect to office in this State the party of reconstruction; that it meant military rule and the use of force in State affairs. But a Republican Governor was elected that year, and had been in office only a few months when he surrounded your State Capitol with armed soldiers, so that a member of the General Assembly could not enter the building and attend the sessions of the body without first obtaining the permission of some Corporal of the Guard or other military officer."

"When Goebel was shot another Republican de facto Governor, who already had his troops in readiness, immediately called them out and had them pursue the members of the General Assembly through the streets of Frankfort and by force of arms prevent their holding a meeting. This Acting Governor, in violation of the Constitution and law, issued a proclamation convening them in session in the town of London. Every court has decided that he had no right to do so, and yet his acts in dispersing the legislators at the point of the bayonet and his effort to assemble them in London have been indorsed by the platform of the Republican party. A writ of habeas corpus, the greatest bulwark of personal liberty, was denied. The courts were defied; the lives of the Democratic Judges of the Court of Appeals were in such constant danger of assassination at the hands of these defendants of 'civil liberty' that they had to give up the use of their courtroom in the Capitol building and had to be guarded lest they, too, in order to make a Republican majority in that court, should fall victims to the assassin's hand. A complete reign of terror existed and the life of no Democratic official in the capital was safe. Lawlessness and crime were in the ascendancy, and the police authorities of Frankfort were defied in their efforts to preserve order. Such a condition was never seen before in a civilized country. But nevertheless, the men who brought about that condition, who squandered thousands of dollars of the State's money illegally and fraudulently, who converted the public buildings of the State into a den for assassins, and who brought disgrace upon the name of Kentucky by their infamous acts, have been indorsed in terms of praise and encomium by a Republican State convention."

"On the other hand, my friends, I invite your consideration of the conduct of the Democrats during these perilous and dangerous times. I do not believe that I exaggerate the case when I say that to their patience and forbearance, to their absolute observance of law, and to their patriotic sacrifices, was due the salvation of the State from calamities of anarchy and strife. I do not claim any credit for myself; I only did my plain duty. It seemed that we were dealing with madmen, and our task was a hard one."

"You cannot find a single instance where the Democrats failed to comply with the letter and spirit of the laws, where they did not strive to restore order and peace in the commonwealth, or where they ever showed the least uneasiness to bow in submission to the decrees of the tribunals of justice. From the Circuit Court of Kentucky to the Supreme Court of the United States our cause was approved and our rights finally established. Frankfort was evacuated of its troops and law and order once again reigned supreme throughout the State. A great cloud of gloom and disaster was removed from the sky above us, and we saw the dawn of a brighter era, when peace and contentment once again existed among our people. But, my friends, there is a cloud upon the horizon which you should watch. It forebodes danger unless the lawabiding people of this commonwealth rise in their patriotism and avert it. It was bad enough for the Republican leaders to commit the crimes they did last winter, but it is far worse that the representatives of that party, after all that has happened, should meet in State convention and deliberately and with premeditation indorse all that had been done."

"It was awful to kill in cold blood a man who had been elected Governor of this great State; it is infinitely worse that they should indorse the conduct of those who stand indicted in our courts for complicity in his murder."

"I refer you to their platforms adopted in their State conventions, one last May and the other in July, that you may see what they said on the subject. They can't escape the issue they have raised by this declaration. We accept it, and we propose to carry the fight before the people of Kentucky to see if they will indorse what the Republican platform indorses. I regret to see that a party in this State which has such a large following should take such a position. It is a sad commentary upon our civilization. But I know that there are a great many upright and honest members of that party who, when they realize its course, will not approve it. There are many patriotic Kentucky Republicans who will revolt against it. Their leaders seek to mislead them."

"But upon this issue which that party has raised we shall meet them. They cannot shift it now. They shall not becloud the real issue by hypocritical talk about the election law. Their leaders know that if the election this fall is unfair it will be their fault. If they do not like the present law they now have a chance to get another one. Let them prove their sincerity. But, my friends, I believe that there are some Republican leaders who do not want to see the present law changed. They do not fear its operation, but they believe that out of the prejudice against it they would get many thousand votes. The Democrats of Kentucky want nothing but a fair law and a fair election. The kind of law the Republicans want is one that will give them the advantage and allow them to steal the vote of the State again, as they did in 1896. Bryan carried this State fairly that year, but by gross frauds in the election and a manipulation of its returns they gave the vote to McKinley. I say, therefore, that the party which stole the Presidency in 1876; that tried to pass the infamous Lodge force bill, and that stole the vote of the State of Kentucky in 1896 cannot be considered sincere when they clamor for fair elections."

"It is hypocrisy of the worst kind, for their conception of a fair election and an honest count is of the Mark Hanna variety, which would permit them to freely use their corruption funds in debauching voters and to have the machinery of the law for their own dishonest use. We want them to have a law so fair and so just that no one shall have cause to complain of it. We are so conscious of the rectitude of our own cause that we do not fear the result of the people's verdict. We believe that the people of Kentucky are fully aware of the real issues before them; that they will not be misled by any pharisaical cant about civil liberty and an honest count; that they know the greatest question in this campaign is whether we are to have a State government administered according to law or by military rule and assassination, and that they prefer law and order to anarchy and chaos."

"They do not intend to indorse that party which has indorsed the crimes of those who brought disgrace upon our State. We have so much confidence in the integrity and the manliness of Kentuckians that we do not fear the result of this election. This is a Democratic State and Democrats will control it. The sad experience of the last five years has taught us a lesson, and it is not likely that the grave mistake made in 1895, by electing Republican State officers, will be again committed. Kentucky is too good a State to be dishonored in such a way. With a history that is emblazoned with the noble achievements of her illustrious heroes; with a soil so fertile and resources so plentiful that it seems nature has bestowed her choicest blessings upon her; with a citizenship of the highest type to be found on earth, her men the bravest and truest; her women the loveliest and most beautiful; proud of the past, careful of the present and hopeful of the future, she lifts up her head in righteous indignation at those who would defame her. The Republican party by its conduct in this State justifies and invites the hostile and unfriendly criticism heaped upon our people by outsiders. They have done most to discredit us abroad and ruin us at home, to make the name 'Kentuckian'

GYMNASIUM WORK.

It Will Be Resumed at the Y. M. C. A. the First of October—Planning for a Vigorous Campaign.

Plans are being made for strong and vigorous work in every department of the Y. M. C. A. this fall. Owing to the continued hot weather little can be done at present, but the work will open in real earnest October 1st.

The usual gymnasium classes for business men, young men and juniors, with probably a new class for intermediate members, will begin the first week in October. Already several members have registered for the business men's class. This class, that was such an interesting one last year, bids fair to be even more so this fall.

A series of practical talks will be provided that will be interesting and instructive talks, not lectures.

The rooms will be made attractive and the work interesting along all lines. It is hoped the membership can be doubled, and it can be if all who are members will work for the increase.

The Religious Committee will meet in rooms this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Full attendance desired.

Farmers are now in a stress for labor to cut and house their tobacco, and are daily in town seeking hands and offering $1.25 to $1.50 per day, with board, and a continuation of employment through the corn cutting season, only to be refused by our patient, waiting class of citizens,—stalwart able-bodied men who themselves and families are frequent beneficiaries of the charities of the city in winter. Our Alms Committee should now begin to poll these curb-stone loafers and idlers.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

The tobacco market for the week just closed was hardly so satisfactory to the seller as was the preceding week. The bidding on medium to good and fine fillers showed less spirit, which caused more than the usual number of rejected bids to be recorded on these types. This portion of the crop now selling is in less plentiful supply than any other grade. Any slump in the price for them seems unreasonable; they are all clean, sweet and sound and will keep so.

"The crop now going into the barn is by comparison bigger and will be coarse and rough. At present manufacturers seem to be overlooking this feature.

"Common trashes and lugs remain strong in the bidding, and, as a rule, prices bid for them are very close to the marks of the seller. The same may also be said of the common top leaf. Good to fine trash and lugs appear to be easier in the bidding, and prices offered are hardly so satisfactory. Occasionally a hoghead of this type sells at rather full value; this, however, is the exception, not the rule."

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there is no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

FOR MOTHERS.

The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering. Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

Clarkson, Ark., July 20, 1899.
After my baby was born I took the white and falling of the womb, and was in a very dangerous condition. I read one of your home treatment books, and commenced to treat myself with Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I am thankful for what the medicine did for me, and I am now in better health than I have been for a long time.
